NEW SOUTH WALES INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB AND THE BLIND

FOUNDED FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB IN 1861, AND FOR THE BLIND IN 1869.

Erected on Five Acres of Land on the City Road, late Newtown Road, Sydney.

The Foundation Stone was laid by His Excellency the Earl of Belmore, on April 3rd, 1871. Opened publicly in February, 1872.

HINTS TO PARENTS.

Written for the Ulster Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, by the REVEREND JOHN KINGHAN, Principal.

THE time allowed for the education of the Deaf and Dumb in our Institution being necessarily so very limited, it is of the greatest importance that the attention of their friends should be directed to the early and proper training which some children ought to receive. If there were only a willing mind, parents and friends might do much by preparatory training at home to facilitate the progress of these children on admission to our Institution, as well as to benefit them when they leave it.

I.—UNEDUCATED DEAF AND DUMB CHILDREN.

Such children could easily be taught to write on a slate, or otherwise, in their own homes, or with their brothers and sisters in the common school of the neighbourhood. When the child can form letters on a slate, it should be taught the manual alphabet. This may be done thus: Write the letter a on a slate, draw the child's attention to it, then teach it to put its hand in the position indicated in the engraved manual alphabet for a. Repeat this till the sight of the letter readily suggests this particular position of the hand. Let the instructor then form this letter on his own hand and see if the child can write the letter. In the same way proceed with the other letters. The alphabet having been thus learned, give the child names of objects or animals with which it is familiar, beginning with words of three letters, as hat, dog, pig, cow, pin, etc. Thus: Write very plainly the word hat. Then let the child form the letters h a t on its fingers, and next point to a hat. Let this process be frequently repeated, till the letters come to be associated with the object and fixed in the memory of the child. This being done blot out the word, point again to the object and see if the child can write hat; and, if so, proceed gradually to each other words in the same manner, such as those for parts of the body, articles of dress, furniture, tools, etc. Pictures of objects may be used with much profit.

Colours and numbers might also taught. In teaching numbers, give the child a few objects to count, and then let them be written down thus: 1, one; 2, two; 3 three.

II.—DEAF AND DUMB PUPILS AT HOME DURING VACATION.

At this time they should be taught the names of parents, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, cousins, etc. Thus—Uncle ANDREW BROWN, Aunt CHARLOTTE DIXON, etc. The names of places, particularly the residence of friends, neighbouring towns, etc., might be given. When the name is first taught, the person or place named must be shown to the child.

Various operations connected with agriculture, and with the trades carried on in their neighbourhood might be explained to these children, which would be very difficult to teach in an Institution; for many of these must be seen to be fully understood.

Induce pupils whilst at home to spend some time daily in revising lessons in their school-books.

III.—DEAF MUTES WHO HAVE LEFT SCHOOL.

When pupils finally leave school, much may be accomplished by friends in the way of carrying forward their education. They should converse much with these children, in very simple language, on religious and other subjects, by means of the manual alphabet and by writing. The use of signs, except when trying to explain difficult words, should be avoided and discouraged. For example, instead of signing to the child, Bring me a chair, write these words or spell them, and always oblige the child to write or spell what it has to express, and correct for it any errors in the language it employs. By adhering to this course, a desire will be excited in the minds of these children to acquire and keep up a correct style in the use of written language, an attainment on their part of the greatest difficulty, and yet of the highest importance.

Attention is specially directed to the importance of having these pupils immediately apprenticed to some trade, or occupied in some useful employment on their return home, by which they may be kept from acquiring idle habits, and be put in the way of earning their own livelihood. The Committee will assist, when necessary, in carrying this out.

In the management of these children, let parents and friends beware of the extremes of over-indulgence on the one hand, or of undue severity on the other. Such children suffer very much from injudicious kindness, or from violent and rude opposition. In general they should be treated very much like other children and taught to feel in every respect that they are responsible beings.

Forty-Seventh Annual Report

OF THE

NEW SOUTH WALES

Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, for the year ended on September 30th, 1908.

Another year in the Institution's history having passed away the Directors are pleased to submit the following account of the events that have occurred and the progress that has been made during the year, which has been one of quiet, steady advancement, unmarked by any great event, but still memorable for having reached high water mark in regard to the number of children who have been benefited.

PUPILS.

The following table shows the number of children who have been under tuition during the year:—

	Deaf & Dumb.		Blind.		Deaf & Dumb & Blind	Totals.		Grand Total.
	Male.	Female	Male.	Female	Female	Male.	Female	—
On the roll Sept. 30th/07.	59	34	15	7	—	74	41	115
Admitted since ...	12	6	3	0	1	15	7	22
	71	40	18	7	1	89	48	137
Discharged or re-moved ...	5	4	3	0	0	8	4	12
	66	36	15	7	1	81	44	125

The number remaining on the roll shows an increase of ten as compared with the previous year. The admission of a number of other children has been applied for and sanctioned, but they have not yet entered the Institution. There are also many others in various parts of the State who are of school age and eligible in every way for admission, but no steps have yet been taken by the parents to secure them an education. This is much to be regretted, because these poor afflicted little ones are growing up in ignorance when they might be receiving the inestimable benefits which this Institution confers in the shape of education and training. The hope expressed in last year's, and indeed in many previous reports, that the Government would see its way to submit to Parliament a Bill for the compulsory education of the Deaf and the Blind has not, the Directors regret to say, been realized. Consequently nothing can be done to enforce the attendance at any school of children thus afflicted. Many parents fail to see the great injustice they are doing to their offspring by allowing them to grow up in a pitiable state of ignorance and helplessness. The Directors can see no way to overcome this difficulty, except by the passing of an Act of Parliament to compel the parents to have them educated. Once more the Directors strongly urge upon the Government the desirability of legislating in this direction. The importance of education for children with all their faculties is recognised, made compulsory and liberally provided for, but for the most helpless of any, and the most needy, the Deaf and the Blind, no such provision is made. It is not only for the benefit of deaf and dumb and blind children themselves that provision should be made, but for the benefit of the whole community, because education would be the means of raising them from a state of deplorable ignorance and dependence to one of happiness, self-reliance and contentment. In short it means their physical, moral and social up-lifting—it means turning helpless persons into good citizens. One has only to compare those who have been educated and trained with others who have not to be able to realize the great difference there is between them.

Perhaps the most interesting child admitted during the year is little Alice Betteridge, who is blind as well as deaf and dumb. This is the first case of the kind admitted into this Institution, and the developments in connection with her education will, no doubt, be watched with considerable and sympathetic interest. One lady friend of the Institution has gone so far as to promise to provide all the clothing required for Alice. The cost of education will be a considerable item, because, as in the well-known case of Helen Keller, she must be taught entirely through the sense of touch, and therefore requires, practically, the whole of one teacher's time and attention. A short account by the Superintendent of the methods adopted and the progress made in regard to her education will be published as an appendix to this report, and will be found very interesting.

The health of the pupils has been remarkably good, very few cases of illness having occurred. The Institution has been entirely free from epidemic diseases. The children, therefore, have had no serious interruption to their studies, and consequently have made satisfactory progress.

Through the courtesy of the Hon. the Minister of Public Instruction (Mr. Hogue), an examination of the pupils was made on the 29th and 30th September by Messrs. M. Willis and H. Parkinson, Senior Inspectors. The report they have furnished is very satisfactory. It shows that "the teachers continue to carry out their onerous duties with zeal, enthusiasm and success"; that they "are actuated by a strong desire to help to the utmost the unfortunate children submitted to their care"; and that "the latter reciprocate this kind treatment by yielding prompt obedience and strong affection." "The moral education of the children is carefully watched, and they have a good knowledge of the main facts recorded in the Scriptures."

The report (which will be published in full as an appendix to this report) concludes thus:—"We have a great admiration for the excellent work being done in this splendid institution; and we should be very much gratified if all the blind and deaf children in this State could be brought under its influence. From the Superintendent down to the youngest pupil teacher, the desire is to brighten the lives of the children by developing as much as possible their physical, mental and spiritual condition.

A report couched in terms like these needs no recommendation, but it must be eminently satisfactory to the Government which subsidises the Institution, to the subscribers who support it, and to the parents whose children are being educated and maintained here.

The annual public examination of the pupils took place in the presence of a large audience at the breaking-up of the school for the Christmas holidays on the 17th

December last. J. H. Goodlet, Esq., J.P., Vice-President, conducted the business of the meeting, and Miss Robinson, a member of the Ladies' Visiting Committee, handed the prizes to the successful students.

FINANCIAL.

The expenditure of the year just closed, like that of the previous year, has been very heavy. This was owing to the large increase in the number of pupils (about 33 per cent. in two years), and a corresponding increase in the teaching and domestic staff to cope with the extra work involved. But the Directors are pleased to say that the income was almost sufficient to meet the expenditure.

The year commenced with an overdraft on

General Fund Account of £149 17 3
The expenditure (including the Adult Deaf

Account) has been 5583 19 6

Making a total of 5733 16 9

The income was 5580 7 3

Leaving an overdraft of 153 9 6

5733 16 9

The debt on the Institute for the Adult Deaf

now stands at £838 16 10

The Directors hope to see these two debts entirely wiped out during the ensuing year, as it will shortly be necessary to incur very heavy expenditure in providing additional dormitory and dining-room accommodation, as well as a larger and more modern kitchen. Plans for these additions have been prepared, but owing to the lack of available funds the Directors are unable to commence the work. If the Institution is to be in a position to admit all the eligible candidates more accommodation must be provided in the near future. The dormitories on the boys' side of the house are quite full, while there is not one spare room for additional officers and servants.

A deputation from the Board, consisting of the President and hon. Secretary, waited upon the Hon. the Chief Secretary (Mr. Wood), on the 9th July last, and urged the necessity for increased Government assistance both in regard to the ordinary expenditure of the Institution and for the additional accommodation required. Mr.

Wood, in reply, expressed the sympathy of himself and the Government with the objects of the deputation, and promised to submit the matter to his colleagues with the object of placing a sum of money on the Estimates to meet the requirements of the case.

The following legacies have been received during the year:—£50 each from the estates of the late Ebenezer Way and Archibald Forsyth, both of which were placed to the credit of the Perpetual Subscribers' Fund; £10 from the estate of the late Miss Eliza Harris; and £5 5s. from the estate of the late M. Wenke.

The Institution also received £15 from the proceeds of the concert kindly given in aid of the charities by Mr. and Mrs. Kennerley Rumford (Madame Clara Butt).

Information has been received in regard to a legacy of about £500 from the estate of the late Mrs. Richard Hawkins, and of £100 from the estate of the late John Augustus Parrot.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND LADIES' VISITING COMMITTEE.

Sir Phillip Sydney Jones, who was in England at date of last report, returned to the State some months ago, and resumed his seat at the Board.

The Directors regret having to report the death of Mrs. John Marks, who, for 18 years was a member of the Ladies' Visiting Committee. In this capacity she took a deep interest in the affairs of the Institution, and by her regular attendance at the meetings of the Committee, and in other ways, assisted very materially in the advancement of the Institution and the happiness of its inmates.

The Ladies' Committee has been strengthened by the addition of two new members, viz., Mrs. E. L. Langley and Mrs. Munce.

Mrs. J. M. Sandy resigned her position as a member of the Committee owing to her departure from the State on a visit to England.

The Directors desire to place on record once again their appreciation of the great assistance they have received at all times from the Ladies' Committee in regard to the domestic concerns of the Institution. They have been unremitting in their attention to these and other important matters, and deserve the best thanks of the subscribers for their labour of love.

OFFICIAL STAFF.

Mrs. Clarke, who was appointed to the important position of Matron in July, 1907, has been most unremitting in her attention to the welfare of the pupils, and has carried out her duties with the utmost satisfaction to the Board and also to the Ladies' Committee.

Several changes in the staff have taken place since last report. Miss Aubrey, assistant matron, resigned her position on July 31st owing to failing health. Her place has been filled by the appointment of Miss McMillan. Miss Simpkins, who had been in the Institution for a number of years as assistant teacher, also resigned in March last, and Miss Stella Harrison was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. George Palmer, Mr. John R. Perry and Miss Clarice Scoular have been placed on the staff as pupil teachers. Mr. Bathurst Broderick was appointed city and suburban collector in February last, and Miss E. C. Reid has been engaged as visiting teacher of cookery.

ALTERATIONS AND REPAIRS.

During the Christmas vacation, advantage was taken of the absence of the pupils and teachers to have some much-needed painting, etc., done in the interior of the building, and to have the whole of the tar-paving inside the grounds top-dressed. Water heaters have been installed in two of the bathrooms, and some minor alterations and repairs have been carried out. The premises on the whole are in very good order.

GENERAL.

For the valuable and effective service which has been rendered to the Institution a hearty vote of thanks is tendered to Dr. W. Camac Wilkinson, hon. physician; Dr. T. Storie Dixon, hon. aurist and oculist; Dr. Herbert J. Marks and Dr. P. Sydney Jones, hon. surgeons; Mr. A. G. Gabriel, hon. dentist; Mr. Percy J. Pratt, hon. solicitor; Messrs. A. L. McCredie and Anderson, hon. architects; Messrs. T. F. H. Mackenzie, F.S.I.A., and Henry Pratt, F.S.A.A., hon. auditors; and Miss Stella Rosenthal, hon. teacher of needlework.

The Directors are also very thankful for assistance in other ways from numerous friends of the Institution, particularly to those who have collected subscriptions in the country districts; some of whom have helped in this direction for many years.

To the subscribers also for their liberal support the Directors desire to express their most sincere thanks and a fervent hope that the support that has been accorded in the past will be continued and increased in the future.

At the beginning of the winter, application was made to the Hon. the Chief Secretary for a gift of blankets, and in response thereto 50 were presented and thankfully acknowledged. Mr. James Stedman also gave a special donation of £2 2s. towards the purchase of others.

During the year the pupils and officers of the Institution have had two most pleasant outings. Through the kindness of His Excellency the Governor and Miss Rawson they were most hospitably entertained at Cranbrook; and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Simpson, on the 11th ultimo, gave them an exceedingly happy time at Clifton Gardens. At each of these events the children were presented with numerous and valuable gifts. Treats like these are red-letter days in the lives of the pupils, to be remembered with feelings of gratitude and delight.

INSTITUTE FOR THE ADULT DEAF.

The good work commenced at the Institute some years ago has been successfully carried on during the past year under the careful supervision of Mr. Watson, Superintendent of the Institution, ably assisted by Mr. Victor Fisher, vice-president, and Mr. F. S. Booth, teacher of the Adult Deaf. Mention should also be made of Mrs. Booth, who materially assists her husband in his arduous duties. Miss Saunders has also rendered good service in many ways.

The various meetings in connection with the Institute are well attended, and the provision made for the instruction and entertainment of the members is highly appreciated and gladly availed of.

For the entertainment of the members a cinematograph apparatus was purchased last year on the time payment system. In order to liquidate the debt thereon the members determined to hold a bazaar. This was kindly opened by Lady Renwick, on the 18th June, the anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo, and it proved to be the Waterloo of the debt, because it was all extinguished, and a substantial balance left in hand as well. The Adult Deaf must be warmly congratulated on this splendid result to the self-denying efforts they had put forth.

The members have now launched out in another direction, having purchased a small printing outfit, with which they produce their official organ "The Silent Messenger," which is extensively circulated among the Adult Deaf throughout the State. It thus serves to keep the Adult Deaf, although many of them are widely separated, in sympathetic touch with one another.

Very laudable work is also being done by the members of the Institute in other ways, notably in helping their less fortunate brothers and sisters when in distress.

The Directors of the Institution are pleased to be able to do what they can to help on this most beneficent undertaking, and trust it will receive the practical sympathy it needs and deserves from the general public.

CONCLUSION.

In looking back, we can see much over which we can rejoice, and now render thanks to our God for His kindly dealings with us. There is, however, much work still before us, and for this we ask strength and guidance.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Gentlemen,—It affords me much pleasure to report upon the work of the Institution during the past twelve months; the more so as this report has reference only to continued good health among the children, satisfactory progress in the schoolrooms with diligence and success generally throughout the Institution.

The routine of daily duties, alike in the educational and domestic departments, tend to occupy the time and attention of both old and young in a healthy fashion, thus preventing too much idleness with its usual baneful accompaniments.

Through my "Quarterly Returns," and in other ways, you have learnt pretty fully about the children's conduct, progress, etc.; whilst our half-yearly reports to their parents explain several facts and features of importance, details which, I am glad to find, are much appreciated in the homes of many of the pupils. Indeed, the appreciative way in which the friends of the children frequently write is most gratifying, and should stimulate us one and all to do our utmost for these little ones entrusted to our care, and whose future depends so largely on the equipment received while here.

General Remarks.

The year now drawing to a close has brought changes, or rather developments; but these have been, I am glad to say, distinctly for the better. There has been, as you know, a very considerable increase in the number of pupils, necessitating an increase on the staff both in the educational and domestic sides of the Institution.

This increase has resulted in some better arrangements, especially as regards the care of the girls when out of school, more attention to their training both in household duties and when at play; consequently not only their working hours, but even their hours of leisure are spent in a purposeful and methodical way.

In this connection let me say that through the appointment of Miss Scoular to help both in the Blind School and occasionally with the Deaf, as well as in the playground (in her turn), I hope to be able to give effect to some of the recently-made suggestions regarding the elder girls whilst in the workroom and at other times; also, and for the same reason, to divide the duties and responsibilities of the staff as equitably as possible. I need scarcely add that the bright and tidy appearance of the pupils generally, their aptness whether, at carpentry or gardening, drawing or wood carving, in the cooking school or sewing class, reflect credit upon the officers who are severally responsible; whilst all these features of industry being educative, tend to what may rightly be called "character building." With reference to both those with us now and the ex-pupils, it is gratifying to be able to speak warmly, and I assure you that their diligence, behaviour, etc., are all one could wish for or expect.

We see a good deal of the latter, the adult blind, especially on Saturday afternoons, the Institution here being their usual meeting place for cricket and other games when off duty. In-

The above is a very excellent likeness of little Alice Betteridge, our Deaf, Dumb and Blind pupil, aged 7 years, who, although only under instruction since January last, has already made good progress in the Manual Alphabet, and has learned about 300 words and a few sentences deed, it is most pleasing to notice the goodwill and kindly "fellow-feeling"; the strong brotherly regard existing between the adults and the pupils who are still here with us—whether Deaf or Blind. The union of these two words, Deaf-Blind, suggests the very interesting case of Alice Betteridge.

This winsome little child, who lost both sight and hearing when two and a half years of age through spinal meningitis, is now nearly 8. Though borne down by this double burden she is yet a bright, happy little thing, in the enjoyment of good health, good spirits, and a quick, active brain. Possessed of an inquisitive mind and an excellent memory, the task of teaching her, which we once almost dreaded to attempt, is found to be fairly easy and pleasant; whilst her interest in her companions and surroundings generally, as also her affectionate disposition, afford constant pleasure to everyone having to do with her.

As some of you, gentlemen, may perhaps know, through my weekly diary, which the President, Sir Arthur Renwick, asked me to keep, Alice has acquired a vocabulary of over 200 nouns, several verbs, such as run, laugh, jump, etc., and can apply them in sentences. These action verbs afford Alice much delight, as she tries to skip, or cough, or laugh, or run, by turns; and since, for so far she considers all these lessons as great fun, the stream of her young life flows on day by day most pleasantly, her companions no less than her playthings all ministering to this little one's happiness.

It is very amusing in ways to notice how her imagination is developing, how well she can mimic this or that action (aided, of course, by her ever-faithful little friend Marian); whilst her gestures show the clear grip she has of the correct meaning.

For example, the other day Alice was assuming the role of both matron and medical officer in one, Marion, the blind girl above referred to, being the patient and requiring medical treatment. With much delight she got the patient to lie down, feigning sickness, and after the usual preliminary offices, such as examining the pulse, tongue, etc. (in her own way, of course), she administered the medicine—a little water in a cup!—with the excellent result that a "perfect cure" having been effected, the invalid jumped up; whilst Alice hopped about full of delight with her success!

In such comical little ways Alice and her Blind friends, whose goodness and patience are unfailing, fill up some of their leisure hours very happily.

From the foregoing it will be seen that in spite of being sorely handicapped, the difficulty of rousing Alice's mind and bringing light and joy into her being, though serious enough in ways, is by no means insuperable. In fact, she frequently surprises and inspires us with hopeful anticipations as to her future; whilst her affectionate and happy disposition will win friends and friendships for Alice all through life. Regarding

The Adult Deaf

Mission, which is a most interesting and important adjunct to our duties and responsibilities, it is pleasing to be able to report in terms of entire satisfaction. Their building, though apart from the parent institution, is yet near enough to be available for gatherings, such as lectures, occasional entertainments, Sunday services, etc., not only for the ex-pupils, who are grown up and gone out into the world to earn their own living, but also for a considerable number of the older boys and girls now at school.

These young people in the senior classes are, I am glad to say, able to appreciate and join in these meetings with pleasure and profit.

Indeed, it is worthy of note that the taste thus acquired during their school days grows and increases with the passing years, so that after leaving school and when re-visiting Sydney they almost invariably find us out and come with alacrity to meet their old friends here, and renew old associations.

But as Mr. Booth's report touches on the Adult Deaf and their doings I shall not prolong my remarks thereon, however fertile they might be in topics of interest.

Suffice it to say that their turn out in life is generally good, a proof that the work of the Institution in whose beneficent operations you are so much interested is not in vain.

Conclusion.

Please find reports enclosed from the several visiting masters, each of whom speaks warmly of his pupils, their diligence and docility being both exemplary and encouraging.

MUSIC MASTER'S REPORT.

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Gentlemen,—It is with great pleasure that I report really good progress on behalf of the blind pupils during the year. The singing and theory classes have been well attended, and special attention has been given to ear tests, singing, and Braille music.

Four (4) piano pupils (Doris Dawson, May Cooper, Vera Parkinson, and Norman Raymond, are doing excellent work.

Mrs. McKenzie, Mr. Watson and myself are each giving a prize for piano, singing, and theory.

The committee will be pleased to know that Miss Moffatt's pupils are making steady progress, especially the girls.

Yours most obediently,

ARTHUR MASSEY.

DRAWING MASTER'S REPORT.

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Gentlemen,—The work done by my pupils during the last twelve months has in all branches been progressive and satisfactory.

The drawing pupils consist of 12 girls and 18 boys. The standard of work has been getting steadily higher, and in the case of two boys, the progress has been so good that they have been promoted from the antique, to painting in water colours from the live model. Both boys and girls are giving the highest satisfaction.

The modelling pupils and those who are wood carving are doing well, the latter especially being deeply interested in their work.

This year we have added another branch of the Applied Arts, namely, Repoussé, or beaten metal work; there are only four boys at present engaged in it, as, in the initial stage it is not easy to acquire, but as time goes on, and with the continued approval of the committee and the kindly encouragement of the Superintendent, I hope we shall be enabled to make this branch more general, for in my opinion it is a branch of art which will be of great value to those pupils who acquire proficiency at it.

J. A. BENNETT.

REPORT OF THE TEACHER OF CARPENTRY AND GARDENING.

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Gentlemen,—The classes for carpentry and gardening, which are in my charge, are, I am pleased to state, making good progress. The boys of the former, especially, take a keen interest in their work, and look with pride upon the many articles made by themselves, which are varied as much as possible. Two or three of the pupils show marked ability.

In the gardening class they learn how and what to plant and sow at the various seasons

Sir,—In connection with your letter of the 26th August, I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of the report furnished by Messrs. M. Willis and H. Parkinson, Senior Inspectors, upon their recent examination of the pupils of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

REPORT UPON THE INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB AND THE BLIND.

Visited 29th and 30th September, 1908.

In our last report we commented on the favourable position occupied by this Institution, and stated that the rooms set apart for teaching purposes were large, suitable and in good repair. Our suggestion to renovate the main room has been adopted, and it is now bright and cheerful. Much of the furniture is of modern design and the general equipment and material aids for teaching are numerous and in the main suitable. We should be glad if the relief maps recommended for the blind could be obtained; and if these pupils could be furnished with some small ones, they would readily learn to model others in plasticene or some similar material.

The programmes of instruction are fuller than in previous years and the lesson registers give a better idea of the work accomplished. Miss Beaumont's weekly arrangement is a good one for the young children, and the work is set out in careful detail. Her scheme of instruction for the pupil teachers is only a broad outline, and would be improved if the scope of each week's instruction could be defined. In most of the classes the adoption of short lessons has been tried with good results. The classification of the children indicates satisfactory progress for the year; and the increase in the enrolment has been met by a corresponding increase in the teaching power. We were glad to note that as suggested last year an additional teacher for the blind has been appointed.

The teachers continue to carry out their onerous duties with zeal, enthusiasm and success. It is pleasing to note the sympathy throughout the school between teachers and pupils. The former are actuated by a strong desire to help to the utmost the unfortunate children submitted to their care; the latter reciprocate this kind treatment by yielding prompt obedience and strong affection. The senior teachers endeavour by reading literature connected with their work to keep in touch with modern requirements, and they gratefully accept suggestions for the improvement of their methods. The increase in the staff referred to above consists of junior teachers only. These have been placed under the guidance of Miss Beaumont, and as the teaching power has thus been weakened in the lower part of the school, her duties have in consequence become more onerous. The pupil teachers, however, show promising aptitude, and are likely to reward their instructor in the near future by showing increased efficiency. It might here be noted that to provide for the adequate teaching of the deaf and blind children now in the State something must be done to train more teachers for this important work. It is estimated that there are fully 80 children, either deaf or blind, living in various parts of New South Wales. These cannot at present be compelled by law to enter the Institution so admirably adapted to help them in their unfortunate condition; nor are experts available to teach them in their own homes. Something should, however, be done in the near future in one or other of the ways indicated to give these defective children the benefits of education.

In the instruction of the children the development of language is made prominent. Two methods are employed—the oral and the manual; and it is understood that no children are made to rely entirely on signs until after a prolonged trial they have failed to be reached by lip reading and articulation. Drawing and writing are also used freely as mediums of thought expression, and in both of these the deaf children excel. The blind children read with clear enunciation, and with such careful expression that it is a pleasure to listen to them. The composition of these children and their general power of oral expression are very satisfactory. The deaf children are encouraged to write short diaries, and this helps them greatly in thought expression. It is much more valuable than memorising transcriptions of the teachers' work—a tendency towards which was noticeable in some classes. In geography and history pleasing proficiency was shown in both sections of the school. The moral education of the children is carefully watched, and they have a good knowledge of the main facts recorded in the Scriptures. The most difficult subject of instruction is undoubtedly arithmetic. We are of opinion that number would be developed more rapidly and the more useful tables grasped more readily if the teaching were more concrete. The daily handling of counters by little ones and the constant use of scales and measures by older children would give realism and interest to the work and create more permanent impressions. Some of the sums set too were rather simple for written work, and higher results would be obtained from the senior deaf children if they were taught in two divisions. There are a few boys who might advance rapidly if they were allowed to use text books for individual effort.

In some of the classes the lessons recorded as "general knowledge" might be more nearly connected with the daily life of the children. Lessons can, of course, be given on The Lion, The Camel or The Whale, more or less successfully, with the aid of good pictures or visits to the Museum or the Zoological Gardens; but the practice of letting the children observe and write their thoughts about common things is much more natural, interesting and effective. It is in this connection that the value of simple lessons in plant life might be mentioned. The area of garden, kept in good order by Mr. Sell and a few of the older boys, might be still further utilised by taking all the deaf children there in classes once or twice a week, letting them take a share in the planting and care of plants and seeds, making them observe the growth and changes occurring between their visits, and, in the case of the older children, encouraging them to write short descriptions of what they have done and seen.

As already indicated, manual training is receiving attention. The blind girls not only knit very cleverly, but they do plain sewing in a manner that would do credit to normal children. The deaf girls sew very neatly, the younger ones under the guidance of the teachers, and the older ones under Miss Rosenthal, a lady visitor who gives her services gratuitously to show her interest in this Institution. Some of the girls help regularly in the kitchen and laundry, and so are acquiring a useful knowledge of cookery and other domestic arts. The older boys are taught wood carving, répoussé work and ordinary carpentry. They make so many useful things that several pounds' worth have been sold recently, and numbers more were seen on the days of our inspection. This work and the gardening already referred to are carried out under the direction of Mr. Sell. In addition to the drawing used as a means of thought expression in the class rooms, many of the children are taught drawing by Mr. Bennett, a visiting master, and some really excellent work was seen. The teacher is careful to encourage any special talent he observes, and we were pleased to note the good attempt made by one of the boys to paint portraits from life. Mr. Bennett also encourages modelling and other forms of manual work and secures good results. The blind children are taught to sing by Mr. Massey, who has been connected with the Institution for many years. Their voices blended nicely in singing several part songs of more than ordinary difficulty for children; and this pleasing change from the usual school routine adds much enjoyment and interest to the children's lives. The girls who show talent are taught to play the piano. One of the seniors played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" with taste and skill, and showed surprising ability to recognise not only single notes but chords struck by us on the piano.

We are glad to know that the physical education of the children is being attended to by the use of breathing and other exercises. These should always be given in the open air; and would be a distinct benefit to all the children if, to the single lessons now given each week, a few minutes' daily practice could be added.

We have a great admiration for the excellent work being done in this splendid Institution; and we should be very much gratified if all the deaf and blind children in this State could be brought under its influence. From the Superintendent down to the youngest pupil teacher, the desire is to brighten the lives of the children by developing as much as possible their physical, mental and spiritual condition. SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE INSTITUTE FOR THE ADULT DEAF.

To the Board of Directors of the N.S.W. Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

Gentlemen,—In submitting the 7th Annual Report of the Adult Deaf of Sydney, it is pleasant to be able to say that during the past twelve months, the work of the Institute has gone on satisfactorily.

The members take an interest in its doings and look on it as a "second home."

The attendance on Sundays and other evenings keeps about the same as before.

The Syllabus for the quarter is drawn up so as to secure interest and variety of entertainment for the members.

The lectures and cinematograph shows, etc., were always appreciated, as also the quarterly socials, which give much satisfaction to both sexes.

Our deaf ladies kindly sacrificed their time and money to make the bazaar a success last June. Our band of workers did well, and had splendid results, so that nearly £68 were realised.

The workers earned and received cordial thanks from our committee. The hall was beautifully decorated.

Our little monthly magazine has been greatly improved of late, through having it printed in our own press. It is our intention to improve the paper and make it as interesting as possible. We are fortunate in having helpers such as Messrs. Fisher and Molloy, Mr. Fisher being Editor, and Mr. Molloy the Compositor, etc. The press, types, etc., have cost nearly £40. We take some pride in thinking that the printing is done by the deaf solely and without any help from outsiders.

The annual meeting of our Institute was held in September last. A large attendance was present. The usual business matters were transacted, and also the election of office-bearers and committee.

A resolution of deep sympathy with Sir Arthur Renwick was passed, regret for his serious illness was expressed, and it is hoped very earnestly that he may recover speedily and be about again.

The general health of the deaf mutes has been good.

In conclusion, on behalf of the adult deaf, I have the honor of thanking you, gentlemen, for your continued interest in our Institute and its operations.

Yours very respectfully,

FLETCHER S. BOOTH.

REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS AT THE FORTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

The 47th Annual Meeting of the Institution was held on October 27th, 1908. His Excellency Sir Harry Rawson, Governor of New South Wales, presided. He was accompanied by Miss Rawson and Mr. G. A. Miller, Private Secretary.

There were also present—Mr. James R. Love (Vice-President), Mr. Wm. Rigg (Hon. Secretary), Mr. L. C. Russell-Jones, Mr. W. H. Simpson and Mr. James T. Wilshire (Directors), Lady Harris, Mrs. Geo. Harris, Mrs. Manson, Mrs. Mackenzie, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Munce, Mrs. Rigg and Mrs. Simpson (Members of the Ladies' Visiting Committee), Rev. C. C. Dunstan, Rev. E. Claydon, Mr. C. W. Lloyd and Mr. A. Halloran.

There was also a large attendance of subscribers and friends, the hall being comfortably filled.

It was decided to take the Annual Report and Balance Sheet, copies of which had been distributed amongst the audience, as read.

In moving the adoption of the Report, the Vice-President (Mr. J. R. Love) said: This afternoon I am reminded of the old saying, "Be sure your sins will find you out." As an Officer of this Institution I should have quietly read over this Report last evening, and had I known I would be called upon to speak to-day, I would have done so, instead of reading a novel on ancient Rome.

I am truly sorry that we are deprived of the presence and the beneficent smile of our President on this occasion. He takes the greatest possible interest in this Institution. Unfortunately, as we all know, he is suffering from a severe illness, and has been for some time, but we are very pleased to hear that he is improving, and we hope that we shall not have many more meetings, even of the Board in this Institution, without his presence. He is certainly one of the best chairmen I have ever sat under. He goes into the minutiae of things, has everything at his fingers' ends, and is ready to afford us information on any question. (Applause.) We all regret the absence of Lady Renwick, who no doubt is kept at home to-day by her anxiety in regard to Sir Arthur's health.

This report, ladies and gentlemen, which you have taken as read, and which I hope most of you will read carefully at your leisure is one of the best that has been issued by this Institution. We have now the greatest number of pupils that has ever been in the Institution—125 children—in fact we have so many, with the prospect of getting more, that it will be necessary to enlarge the accommodation, and we shall, therefore, before very long commence other buildings, and we shall have the pleasure of calling upon you and the public generally to come and help us in this good work.

I am happy to say that the public support us very handsomely, and this has made it easy for us from time to time to carry out improvements and additions to the Institution.

The amendment of the Education Act making it compulsory for parents to send their afflicted children to the Institution for education at a suitable age has frequently been referred to. We know of at least 80 children throughout the State who are either suffering from blindness or are deaf and dumb. With the advance of medical science, and I suppose the opportunities which now exist in the country districts of obtaining medical advice for children whose sight is defective, blindness is on the decrease. The greater number of our pupils are those born deaf and dumb. It is mistaken kindness for parents to keep their children at home after they are 7 years old. Not long ago an incident happened in which parents wrote to the Board to ask if we would take their son of 16 years of age. I suppose they found that he had then grown up and was useless. Had he come to this Institution at the proper age, he would have been trained, his intellect enlightened, and instead of being a drag on society, he would have been an ornament; at all events he would be able to earn his own living. As you are probably aware some of the boys educated here have passed the University Exams., and are in responsible positions in Government Offices. Had it not been for this Institution the chances are that a great many of these would have been a drag on society. Instead of that they are able to earn a living for themselves, and are useful to the other inmates of the Institution.

The Government Inspectors have visited this Institution and have presented their Report, in which they say: "We have a great admiration for the excellent work being done in this splendid Institution, and we should be very much gratified if all the blind and deaf children in this State could be brought under its influence. From the Superintendent down to the youngest pupil teacher, the desire is to brighten the lives of the children by developing as much as possible their physical, mental and spiritual condition."

Now that is a very encouraging report from the Government Inspectors, and I hope before very long an amendment of the law will be made so that parents will be obliged to send their children here to be educated. We want them about 7 years of age. It is a great mistake to keep them at home until they are 10 or 12. If they are sent here at 7 years of age and they have any intellect at all (and a great many of them are really clever), we turn them out at 16 or 17 years, capable of getting situations that they could not possibly have filled otherwise.

Before I close, I feel sure I have the sympathy of all in referring to His Excellency's approaching departure. We often hear the expression "by His Excellency's command," but it seems to me His Excellency (and Miss Rawson, too) are nearly always at the people's command. The wonder is how His Excellency and Miss Rawson find time and energy for the interest they take in all our Institutions. (Hear, hear.) We know that His Excellency and Miss Rawson have, by their patronage and presence, helped our Institutions wonderfully, and I am very grieved to think that perhaps this will be our last public meeting at which His Excellency will be present. (Hear, hear.) I regret it very much, and am sure you will agree with me in saying that he has rendered valuable aid to all our philanthropic enterprises. (Applause.)

Mr. William Rigg, the Hon. Secretary, in seconding the resolution, said: It gives me great pleasure to second the adoption of the report which has been so ably proposed by our Vice-President, Mr. Love. It is usual on an occasion of this kind, when there are so many parents of the pupils present, to let them have an idea of the report of the Inspectors. It is as follows:—

(Mr. Rigg then read the report, the full text of which appears on pages 20 to 26).

I, with my friend Mr. Love, extremely regret the absence of our esteemed President, Sir Arthur Renwick, on this occasion. I think it is the only occasion for many years, at all events to my knowledge, that we have missed his happy smile and familiar face, and he is one of those gentlemen so competent to take a helpful part at a public meeting of this nature, that his absence is very much felt to-day. I am sure we all regret that it is through very severe illness he is not here. If he is not with us in body he is in spirit, and nobody will be better pleased when he reads the report of the meeting this afternoon, and the excellent report from the Department of Public Instruction, than Sir Arthur Renwick.

I recollect that some four years ago your Excellency took occasion to comment upon the want of a compulsory system of education of the kind given by this Institution, but up to the present our hopes have not been realised. We, however, had an interview with the Chief Secretary, Mr. Wood, and from the information Sir Arthur Renwick and myself obtained, I think that before the next meeting, at all events, something of a substantial character will be done on behalf of this Institution.

There is a very interesting case referred to in the Report, that of Alice Betteridge, a little girl mentioned by our worthy President three years ago. At that time she was considered too young, but during the past year she has been admitted to this Institution, and although she is deprived of both sight and hearing, and is deaf, dumb and blind, she is, up to the present time, giving great encouragement to the whole of the teachers connected with the Institution. There are very few of such cases on record, although you have probably all heard of Helen Keller and Laura Bridgman's wonderful success under similar circumstances. There is no reason why the same brain power should not be developed in an Institution of this kind, and from the reports given by the Superintendent and the various teachers who have had her under their control, this little girl is giving the utmost promise. She is sharp in her movements, and although only a few months with us can communicate with her teachers and her parents already.

With these few remarks I have much pleasure in seconding the adoption of the Report and Balance Sheet. (Carried unanimously.)

THANKS TO THE GOVERNMENT AND PARLIAMENT FOR THE ANNUAL SUBSIDY.

Mr. J. T. Wilshire moved: "That the thanks of this meeting are hereby given to the Government and Parliament for the annual donation of £450 in aid of the funds of the Institution." He said: The resolution which it is my privilege to propose will, I am confident, meet with your acceptance. I can only say we are very thankful for small mercies. I regard the amount as infinitesimal—I say so with all respect—but at the same time I ask you to join with me in returning our thanks for it. It is not my intention to detain you too long, but the resolution leads me to a subject which is interesting to everyone in this great and beautiful land of Australia. I refer to the support of valuable institutions such as this. We are told in the report that there are now in it about 125 children, girls and boys, with deficient faculties: some are blind, and some can't hear. That is a sad phase of humanity, and I think the Government should be charged with the responsibility of assisting this Institution. Surely the education of those who are deficient in the faculties which I have referred to requires greater attention at the hands of the Government of the day. (Hear, hear.)

I therefore earnestly ask you to join with me in making a suggestion to the Government to impose a tax upon all amusements. If there is a nation in the world which loves amusements more than another it is my fellow countrymen in Australia. We love amusements. There are such ample opportunities in this glorious climate to enjoy ourselves that we are apt to think too much of amusement, and too little of the stern realities of life. I am pleased to draw your attention to the fact that Sir Thomas Bent, in Victoria, is preparing a bill to present to the Victorian Assembly with the object of imposing a tax upon amusements. If that is done, I trust sincerely that our honorable and noble Premier, Mr. Wade, will follow such a grand example; and then, instead of thanking the Government for the small subsidy of £450 per annum, the Government will have at its disposal some tens of thousands of pounds to distribute amongst the various charitable Institutions in the State of New South Wales.

When we are in health and strength and enjoy our lives, and our amusements, we can well afford to give a small trifle towards that day when unfortunately we might not have that health and strength. Take the hospitals as an illustration. When a poor man is taken in with a broken leg or arm, he gets the assistance of the best medical advice for nothing. There are many cases where he could pay something towards his cure, but he pleads poverty. If he contributed when in health and strength, even in a small degree, he could go there in the assurance and confidence that he had given something towards being attended to. I must apologise for trespassing upon your time, but I ask you now to join with me in the vote of thanks to the Government for the subsidy of £450. (Applause.)

Rev. C. C. Dunstan, in seconding the resolution, said: I am sure I feel it a great honor to be connected, even remotely, with such a grand Institution as this, and it gives me much pleasure to second this resolution, because I am sure you will agree with me that there are very few Institutions whose benevolence makes greater demands upon the very best efforts of us all, and whose achievements have been more excellent than this Institution.

Now, I am very glad that the Government is not quite deaf—a little hard of hearing possibly—and not quite blind—it has seen its way to make this grant of £450. Well, now, so far the Government has done itself honor, and I must congratulate the Government that it has gone thus far, and I must endorse what has been said by the mover of this resolution. I do hope that they will take some larger action which will be for the advantage of the Institution, and I am quite sure it will be an advantage to themselves. We want a liberal Government, and I am quite sure we are all on the side of a liberal Government to-day. If we press this home upon them, possibly we might have a grant of £4500 next year. I have very great pleasure in endorsing what has been said by the mover of this resolution.

Carried unanimously.

Apologies for non-attendance, received from the following gentlemen, were read by the Hon. Sec., Mr. W. Rigg:—The Ven. Archdeacon Gunther, Mr. J. H. Goodlet (Vice-President), Mr. R. H. Ducker, and Mr. Fred. Phillips (Hon. Treasurer).

Election of Office-Bearers, Directors, and Medical Staff.

Mr. L. C. Russell-Jones moved the following resolution:—
“That the following gentlemen be members of the Board of Directors for the ensuing year:—

President: The Hon Sir Arthur Renwick, K.B., M.L.C.

Vice-Presidents: Mr. John Hay Goodlet, J.P., and Mr. James R. Love.

Hon. Treasurer: Mr. Fred. Phillips.

Hon. Secretary: Mr. William Rigg, J.P.

Directors (to fill vacancies): Mr. Robert Chadwick, J.P., Mr. John Pope, J.P., and Mr. W. H. Simpson, J.P.

And that the following do constitute the Medical Staff:—

Hon. Physician: Dr. W. Camac Wilkinson.

Hon. Aurist and Oculist: Dr. T. Storie Dixon.

Hon. Surgeons: Dr. Herbert J. Marks and Dr. P. Sydney Jones.

He said: I have very great pleasure in proposing this resolution. I need hardly say that the gentlemen who have occupied these positions have given a great deal of their time last year, and they have thought it no trouble to come here in the performance of their duties. I do not think I need say any more about them. They are so well known in connection with their work here for so very many years past that the resolution cannot fail to receive your hearty approval.

Rev. E. Claydon, in seconding the resolution, said: I am delighted to be able to raise my voice for one minute to speak of an Institution whose services I value so highly. It is my business to second the resolution which has just been proposed, and I do not think that any words are necessary. It always seems to me in coming to a gathering of this kind that the children speak for themselves of the training they receive in the Institution. When you look at the children on the platform to-day their very silence is eloquent testimony of the great care and love and patience that has been bestowed upon them and of all that these gentlemen have done for them in the past. I therefore cordially second the resolution which has been proposed.

Carried unanimously.

Vote of Thanks to the Directors and Officers.

His Excellency the Governor (Sir Harry Rawson) moved. — "That a hearty vote of thanks be accorded to the Directors and Officers of the Institution for their services during the past year. He said: I take it upon myself to propose this motion. (Loud applause.) Every one of us here must regret very much the absence of the President (Sir Arthur Renwick), who for 27 years as President of the Institution, and 12 years before that connected with it, making a total of 39 years, has been one of the guiding and ruling spirits in helping on this work for the benefit of the deaf, dumb, and the blind. We regret immensely his absence, and I am sure that we all would join in sending him and Lady Renwick a message to say how much we miss their presence, and how we hope that he will soon recover from the illness he has been suffering from. This Institution, as we all agree, has been doing enormously good work. I am sorry that the Government, so far, have not seen their way to make a law to enforce the sending of all children who are afflicted with these terrible afflictions to this Institution. But sitting here just now it struck me that we may, while waiting for that law, help a good deal in this way. It has been said that a great many parents and friends of those who are in the Institution now are present here to-day. We also know that the Institution has turned out a great many pupils who are earning their way in life, and I think it would not be a bad thing if the Directors were to collect evidence and print that evidence, first from those who have gone from this Institution out into the world, and are now earning their own living, and from others, who can say what an immense advantage it had been to them to have been taught here, and next, if we could get those parents and friends who have their children or their connections in the Institution to write in to the Institution, saying how lovingly and how carefully their children or their friends had been looked after. I can quite understand the mother away up country does not like to part with her little girl or boy and send them to a strange Institution. But if the Directors were to collect evidence from the past inmates and from the parents of those who have been in the Institution, and send it to those mothers up country who are keeping their children from the advantages this Institution would afford them, I think it would bring about the desired result. I think that if such information were sent round to all the homes where it is known there are children afflicted in this way, of which there are known to be 80 or 90, the parents who are standing in the way of the little ones would recognise their error and would voluntarily send their children here. It would be a better method than enforcing the law. I think myself it would be a very good idea, especially as we hear there is to be a printing machine in the Institution. That would save any expense; the only trouble would be to get from those who have been here and gone out into life their opinions of the assistance they have had, and also those mothers who have children here and could say how well they have been looked after, and how happy they have been in the Institution. (Applause.)

This is a proposal of thanks to the Committee and Directors, and also, I take it, to the teachers and all those who have given their services during the past year.

There is one present here who has served 38 years as Superintendent of this Institution—(applause)—who has won the love, not only of those who have passed through it, but also of those who are here now, and the confidence of all those who have sent their children here. He has also won the devotion of the children who have been placed under his care. I am speaking of Mr. Watson, the Superintendent. (Applause.) He is worthy of the earnest and heartfelt thanks of us all. Then there are the teachers; we all owe them a deep debt of gratitude for the loving care they take of the children under their charge, knowing what that loving care has done for so many who have left this Institution.

I am sure you will all thoroughly agree with the motion, and that we all owe the most sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Directors and Committee and teachers, who have given their services during the past year. (Loud applause.)

Mr. C. W. Lloyd, in seconding the resolution, said: It gives me very great pleasure indeed to have the privilege of seconding the resolution. I am sure it must appeal to everyone present as being most thoroughly deserved. I do not suppose the Officers and Directors of any Institution in Sydney have shown more zeal and kindly care for the inmates than the officers have for the children in this Institution. I most heartily endorse all that has been said, and have great pleasure in seconding the resolution.

Carried unanimously.

Vote of Thanks to His Excellency the Governor.

Mr. Love: I have much pleasure in proposing that we extend a very hearty vote of thanks to His Excellency for presiding at this meeting, and also to Miss Rawson for the pleasure her presence has afforded us. We may not have the pleasure of again meeting His Excellency here, and we take this opportunity of wishing him length of days and prosperity. I have very great pleasure in moving the vote of thanks to His Excellency. (Loud applause.)

Mr. William Rigg: I have very great pleasure in seconding this resolution. So far as the Institution is concerned, we are saying good-bye to our esteemed friends. That is a matter of deep regret to us all. The name of Rawson will ever stand out conspicuously in connection with our Institution, and indeed with all others in this State. When he arrived here he had a big load to carry as a successor of such men as Sir Hercules Robinson, Lord Jersey and Lord Carrington, but I think the gentlemen who come after Sir Harry Rawson will have a still bigger load to carry.

When he is leaving here he will carry with him the sincere regard and admiration of us all. If we do not see him again we shall hope and trust that his life will be one of peace and happiness wherever he may be. Sir Harry Rawson has never failed us when called upon on behalf of this Institution. Then there is Miss Rawson, who has endeared herself to the people of Australia. May they be spared long together to enjoy the happiness of their own home in the old country. They will be sure of a hearty welcome and a loyal one should they at any future time return to Australia. (Loud applause.)

Sir Harry Rawson, who on rising to respond was greeted with a hearty demonstration, said: On behalf of my daughter and myself I thank you very much indeed for the kind things you have said. It has given me great pleasure to come and see what good work has been done here for the poor children and how well they are getting on. When we do leave Australia my daughter and myself will carry away a very warm corner in our hearts for the land where we have received so much kindness. I do not think there is anything more to be said, except that my daughter and myself want the children and the teachers to come out and spend the afternoon with us at Cranbrook on 13th November next. (Loud applause.)

The proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

COMPOSITION BY THE PUPILS.

The following specimens of composition, or essays, are the work of some of the pupils (the subjects are of their own choosing), and receive no correction, except such as their respective writers can make on a careful review, when the prominent errors are pointed out by a teacher. In judging them it is well to remember the ages of the writers, and the length of time at school; also that very few, if any, had acquired a knowledge of written or spoken language previous to their admission into the Institution:—

THE PICNIC.

On the 11th of September, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson gave the pupils of this Institution a grand picnic at Clifton Gardens. At half-past nine on Friday morning there were two special trams waiting at the gates of the school to take us to Fort Macquarie. We were taken from there to the picnic grounds in a special boat. When we arrived at Clifton Gardens some of the ladies got off the steamer to get our dinner, while we were taken for a trip round the Harbour, which we all enjoyed very much. We had dinner at 12 o'clock. Afterwards most of the children went to the beach. Some of the deaf boys played cricket. We went to tea at half-past four. After tea Mr. and Mrs. Simpson gave each pupil a present. We got back to school at 7 o'clock after a long day of enjoyment.

THE VISIT OF THE MELBOURNE BOYS.

The Melbourne deaf boys came here last Tuesday week with Mr. Adcock and Mr. Harley. They changed their trousers and caps, and looked very nice. Mr. Adcock came to see us. We were very glad to see him. The Melbourne boys played a cricket match against us and won. The boys of Melbourne had tea at 6 o'clock. After tea they were talking with us for a little while. They stayed at Darlinghurst. Last Saturday afternoon they played against the Adult Deaf. It was raining heavily and rather cold. They had a nice social in the Mission Hall at night, where they played games and enjoyed themselves very much. The girls did not go to it; only the boys who cricketed.

EDWARD VII.

King Edward VII. is our King. He commenced to reign in January, 1901, on the death of his mother, Queen Victoria. He was called the Prince of Wales before he became King. His wife is called the Queen. Her name is Alexandra. The King was born on November 9th, 1841, so that he will be 67 years old next month. The Queen's birthday is on December 3rd. They have 3 homes—Windsor Castle, Buckingham Palace, and Balmoral Castle. The King has to sign all laws passed by Parliament. Laws are useful, as they make for peace and order. Parliament consists of a number of men chosen by the people, who meet together to make laws.

G. S.

(11 years of age, 4½ years at School).

SIR HARRY RAWSON.

Sir Harry Rawson is the Governor of New South Wales. He will preside at the Annual Meeting, on Tuesday, October 27th. The pupils will be very glad to see him. He will come about 3 o'clock. We hope that Miss Rawson will be with him. There will be a lot of people here. Sir Harry Rawson will go to England next year, and a new Governor will come. We are very sorry that he is going to leave us. Government House is called "Cranbrook." It is at Rose Bay. We spent a very nice afternoon there last year. Sir Harry Rawson was very kind to invite us, and give presents to the pupils. His wife died in 1904. She was a very nice lady.

SPECIAL INFORMATION.

“The object of this Institution is the education and maintenance and, as far as practicable, the advancement in life of deaf and dumb and blind children.

The Institution is open to Subscribers and other Visitors on Tuesdays and Fridays, from 2 to 4 p.m., and at other times on special order from the Honorary Secretary or a Director.

The Parents and Friends of children are admitted once a fortnight, on Thursdays, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

The children are permitted to leave the Institution to visit their friends once a month, on special written application being made to the Honorary Secretary.

When a case of serious or infectious illness occurs, while a pupil is at home, it must be reported to the Hon. Secretary, and the child must not be returned to school until all danger of infection has passed, and a medical certificate to that effect produced.

Forms and all particulars for the admission of pupils can be obtained of the Honorary Secretary.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Treasurer, the Secretary, or at the Institution.

The Meetings of the Board of Directors are held on the Second Monday in each month, at 3 o'clock p.m. The Ladies' Visiting Committee meet at the Institution on the last Friday in each month, at 3 o'clock.

The cost of passages to and from the Institution must be paid by the friends of the pupils, the Board having no fund for this purpose.

All communications to be addressed to Mr. William Rigg, Honorary Secretary, at the Institution, City Road (late Newtown Road), Darlington, Sydney.

Money orders should be made payable to the Secretary or Treasurer, at the General Post Office, Sydney.

It is highly necessary that the Parents or Friends of children should notify the Secretary of any change of residence, so that, in case of illness, or other cause, immediate communication may be made.

The Public, Subscribers, and friends of the Institution are earnestly entreated to notify the Secretary of the existence in their districts of any Deaf and Dumb or Blind Children, from 7 to 15 years of age, it having been a source of great regret to the Board to find that several children have passed the age of admission, simply from their not having come under the notice of some kind friends who would take the necessary steps to enable them to be brought within the advantages of the Institution.

INFORMATION AND DIRECTIONS RELATIVE TO THE ADMISSION OF CHILDREN TO THE INSTITUTION.

1. Applications must be in writing, addressed to the Secretary, sent before the child is brought to the Institution, and should contain as full information as possible. The necessary forms can be obtained of the Hon. Secretary.
2. Pupils are admissible from any part of the State of New South Wales, and, under certain conditions, from other States.
3. No child deficient in intellect, subject to fits, or unable to wash and dress itself, can be considered a fit subject for admission; and no child, whose conduct or habits are deemed by the officers to be objectionable, will be allowed to remain in the Institution.
4. No child shall be admitted of any age younger than seven years, nor older than twelve years, unless under special circumstances, to be decided by the Board.
5. No order will be given by the Secretary for a child's admission until the medical certificate has been obtained, and it must be understood that no children are eligible for admission until every means have been tried for restoring their sight or hearing, as the case may be.
6. Children, on entering the Institution, are required to have two complete suits of clothing for school or week-day wear, to be of dark colour, and a better suit for Sunday, and to be provided with clothing (see list) by their parents and friends during their residence. Each child must be provided with a box or trunk, in which to keep clothing when clean. If £5 be remitted, the Board will purchase an outfit on admission.
7. Any amounts remitted to the Secretary for the purchase of clothing will be expended under the direction of the Board of Directors.
8. School fees vary according to the circumstances of the parents; the highest fee is £40 a year. If the parents are not able to pay that amount, a smaller fee will be accepted.
9. In the case of pauper children, a certificate of inability to pay any fee must be obtained from known individuals.
10. Fees are payable in advance, and date from the time of admission.
11. Children cannot be permitted to leave the Institution unless with the direct sanction and authority of the Board of Directors.
12. In addition to the usual educational course, the girls are taught cookery, household duties, and plain and fancy needlework; and the deaf boys carpentry.
13. The vacations are 6 weeks at Christmas and 1 week at midwinter; and it is essential that pupils should return to the Institution on the day fixed to commence duties after each vacation, "and with their clothing clean and in proper order." (See list.)
14. The average term of residence in the Institution for pupils is from 2 to 10 years, but the length of stay depends a good deal on the age of the child when admitted. Parents should particularly note this, as, if a child is kept at home until 12 or 13 years of age, it cannot be permitted to remain the full term, and as it takes from 8 to 10 years to educate an afflicted child properly, it is very important that it be sent when about 7 years of age. Parents will only have themselves to blame if they keep their children at home too long, and then have them only partially educated.
15. Except under special circumstances children will only be admitted at two periods of the year, viz., in January and July.
16. It is requested that all communications be addressed to

WILLIAM RIGG, Hon. Secretary,
City Road, Darlington, Sydney.

The Blind Chinese Boy

By Rev. W. H. H. Yarrington, M.A., LL.B.

Lines written at the request of Mrs. Wilkinson, of Foo Chow, after a Lecture delivered by her at St. Luke's, Burwood.

I am a lonely Chinese boy ;
I have no happiness or joy,
But, full of misery and pain,
I often cry and weep in vain,
For I have none to love or care
For all my sorrows, or to share
My burden, and to give relief
And comfort, in my childhood's grief.
I am not beautiful, 'tis true,
And have no charm, perhaps, for you.
I am ill-shapen and uncouth,
And yet I tell you what is truth :
I have a heart—a human heart—
A soul to feel, and tears which start
Whene'er I feel the bitter smart
Of cruel words and unkind deeds,
And sore neglect of all my needs.
And so I weep by day and night.
My greatest grief is loss of sight ;
I never see the cheerful light,
I ne'er behold the lovely world,
Whose beauty lies around unfurled—
The loveliness of flowers and trees,
Whose bright leaves rustle in the breeze ;
I cannot see the light of love
Which shines upon me from above.
I am alone—yes, all alone,
In this dark world ; so oft I moan,
And wonder why I e'er was born,
To live a life in grief forlorn.
I scarcely have enough to eat ;
My hands are cold, my naked feet
Are shrivelled, for I cannot walk ;—
But why should I thus sadly talk
Of all my sadness and distress ?
Alas ! I know not love's caress ;
There is no hand my face to soothe,
No one my pillow hard to smooth !

What do I hear !—A loving word ?
Is it the singing of a bird ?
What is that note that sounds so sweet ?
A gentle hand, so soft and kind,
Touching my eyelids, dark and blind,

As if they would my sight restore!
 The tears start from them more and more.
 I feel a sense ne'er felt before—
 A sense of gratitude and love,
 As if an angel from above
 Had touched me with its gentle wing,
 And made my heart within me sing!
 And as the petals of a flower
 Open whene'er a gentle shower
 Falls on them, and the warming ray
 Of sunshine touches them, and they
 Are beautiful once more, and bright,
 Rejoicing in the heavenly light,
 So doth my heart expand with joy—
 The heart of this poor Chinese boy!

Away in this far distant land
 The gentle Missionary's hand
 Is leading me, by ways unseen,
 As if in pastures bright and green,
 And teaching me that all my life
 May yet, with joy untold, be rife.
 They teach me how to read and pray,
 That God may bless me every way—
 They tell me of a Father's love,
 Who dwells in Heaven and Light above,
 Who gave His only Son to die
 That I may live with Him on high;
 That all my sins may be forgiven,
 That I may go to Him in Heaven!
 And so they teach me what is good,
 And give me warming clothes and food,
 And thus they make my life a joy,
 Because they love their Chinese boy.
 They tell me, though I cannot see,
 There yet is joy awaiting me;
 That one day, through God's loving grace,
 I shall have sight, and see the face
 Of Jesus Christ, my Saviour dear,
 Who suffered so much sorrow here;
 Who often spake, with accent kind,
 To soothe the sick and heal the blind,
 And give them sight, that they might see
 His loving face—and so shall I
 One day, behold Him very nigh,
 And then my pains will all be past,
 And I shall dwell with Him at last!

And so I bless the loving voice
 Of those who bid me to rejoice!
 God bless all those whose gentle care
 Has brought an answer to my prayer:
 And who shall now the peace destroy
 Of that once lonely Chinese boy?

HINTS TO PARENTS WHO WISH THEIR DEAF CHILDREN TAUGHT TO SPEAK.

Do not check, but encourage, the child in the production of vocal sounds, noises, and laughter, even though such sounds may be deemed unpleasant or discordant. Speak to the child at all times, slowly and distinctly, in such a manner as to afford a good view of the lips and tongue.

Though at first not able to understand, the child will, in course of time, if this practice be persistently carried out, begin to associate certain movements of the lips and tongue with certain objects and actions. Many deaf children in this way are taught by their parents and nurses to speak understandingly such words as papa, or mamma, etc.

On the same principle that the sound of the spoken word, striking continually on the active ear of an infant, at length connects itself in the child's brain with a certain object or action; so does the movement of the lips and tongue convey a similar impression through the eye of the deaf child, as to the relations existing between such movements and the objects, etc.

Avoid most carefully making signs. Use no more natural gestures than are absolutely necessary. A look or pointing at the object should, as a rule, suffice. Encourage the child to associate with hearing children. If possible keep the deaf child strictly apart from those using signs or the finger alphabet.

Be very patient and consistent in your treatment of and behaviour to the deaf child, and see that others are, too; not quick and impatient at one time and over indulgent at another, but always loving, gentle, and firm. As a rule there is nothing in the deaf mute child itself to prevent physical and intellectual improvement. He has the same mind, the same understanding, the same capacity to learn as other children possess. How shall his mental faculties be developed? How shall he learn from others to use their language when he cannot hear their words?

The solution of this problem is the special province of schools for the deaf. Instruction in such schools can only result successfully when it is assisted and prepared for by the Home training. In the early education of deaf mutes it should be taken into consideration that in consequence of their infirmity they are more dependent upon others, and have more claim to patience and forbearance than those who hear.

From their earliest infancy they should feel the lack of this forbearance and patience as little as possible. Parents must assist the deaf mute child from the first and devote themselves to him more self-sacrificingly than to others. The above hints are certainly not meant to encourage parents in pampering their deaf children, or spoiling them by over-indulgence, or fostering self-will in any way.
